Lieutenant Schoble to Address Legion

Noted Legionnaire Secured as Speaker For Monday's Meeting.

TO ELECT OFFICERS

Nomination and election of officers for the coming year and a talk by Lieutenant Frank Schoble are the features of the meeting of the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, of Narberth, at its meeting Monday night. It will be held in the Legion headquarters in the Community Building on Windsor Avenue.

Lieutenant Schoble, who lives in Wyncote, is a National Vice Commander of the Legion. Blinded in action in the Argonne, he resumed his studies at the University of Pennsylvania at the close of the war, taking his bachelor's degree in 1924 and a master's degree in the following year. He is well known in Narberth having spoken at the Memorial Day celebration in the Borough a couple of years ago.

A brief business meeting for the election of officers will precede Lieutenant Schoble's talk. Present officers of the Harold D. Speakman Post are Arthur L. Cooke, commander; William Fretz, 1st vice commander; Frank A. Schrepfer, 2nd vice commander; John A. Mowrer, Jr., adjutant; Roland Hewitt, finance officer; executive committee: Harry Simpson, Perry Redifer, Tom Kerrigan, John Nash and Allan Schubert.

All friends of the Legion are invited to the meeting to hear Lieutenant Schoble.

Stop Sign Violation Results in Accident

Failure to observe a "Stop" sign at Morris Avenue and Lancaster Pike, Wynnewood, on Sunday afternoon about one o'clock resulted in an accident in which a woman was thrown through a windshield, necessitating 14 stitches in her head. The car which failed to stop was driven by M. J. Beattie, of 322 Price Avenue, Narberth, and that going along the pike was occupied by A. A. Becker and his wife, of Columbia, Pa. Mrs. Becker was taken immediately to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital and the two drivers to Ardmore Police Station for a hearing before Magistrate Franklin P. Kromer. They were released pending the woman's recovery.

Denies Charges

A flat denial of the charges brought against him by his neighbors was made yesterday by Frederick Black when interviewed. He declared his intention of stating his position in an early issue of Our Town.

Fathers' Association Asks Aid For Scouts

Financial Assistance Needed to Carry on Work in Borough.

EXPENSES MOUNTING

In the interest of the Boy Scouts of Narberth, the Fathers' Association yesterday mailed a letter to the citizens of the Borough asking for their financial assistance in carrying on the work among the boys of the community. The letter is signed by Walton M. Wentz, president of the association, which is the local governing body.

At present there are forty-two registered Scouts in the Narberth Troop. This is about the limit in number that can be properly taken care of in the rather cramped quarters of The Cabin on the Scout property just south of the railroad station. Their first meeting for the Fall and Winter season is scheduled for Friday evening, October 3.

The funds of the Fathers' Association are practically exhausted. Interest charges on the mortgage on the property, repairs to the building, fuel for heating it during the winter, are some of the expenses which will have to be met within a few weeks. It is for this purpose that the request for assistance is being sent at this time. Then, too, the general program of activities during the scouting season cannot be conducted without incurring some expense from time to time. Equipment for a "jamboree team" cannot be had because of a shortage in

First Club Meeting Set For October 7th

October 7 has been set as the date for the opening meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth. This date is a little in advance of the usual opening of the club year. It will be held in the club room in Elm Hall at 2:30 P. M.

This initial meeting of the year will be in the nature of a get-together meeting to discuss informally several activities of the club. Of special interest will be the County Federation meeting, which will be held at Narberth on October 23 with the Narberth Club as the hostess.

A good turnout for the opening meeting is hoped for to welcome the president and new members.

A meeting of the Board of Directors and all chairmen of committees will be held in the club room on Tuesday, October 14, at 10 A. M.

Wed at Valley Forge

The marriage of Miss Gladys M. Vandling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vandling, of the Berkley Apartments, and Mr. Edward Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davies, of Revere Road, Merion Park, took place last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, in the presence of the immediate families.

Bowlers Meet Tuesday

The Narberth Interchurch Bowling League will hold its annual meeting on Tuesday evening, September 23, at 8 o'clock, at the Lutheran Church. Members of the league and other bowlers interested are requested to be present.

New Church to Be Opened on Sunday

Community Interest Featured in Week of Special Services.

PRAISE BLDG. COMMITTEE

The new Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church will be formally opened on Sunday morning at 10:30. Dr. Lucius H. Bugbee, an outstanding minister in Methodism, will preach. Dr. Charles M. Boswell will address a meeting in the afternoon at 2:45. At this meeting the Melody Trumpeters will assist the choir in furnishing the musical part of the program. At 7:45 Bishop Ernest J. Richardson will preach and dedicate the church. Other churches of the community will join in this service.

A community service on Monday evening will be addressed by the local clergymen. The music will be in charge of David Spratt and his choir from All Saints Episcopal Church. The Woman's Club and the American Legion will be represented.

Another service of community interest will be the organ recital by Ralph Kinder on Tuesday evening. Miss Ernestine B. Bacon, Narberth's popular lyric soprano, will assist Mr. Kinder. No charge is made for admission, but a free-will offering will be taken. To the above mentioned services in particular the public is most cordially invited.

Narberth Methodists feel they owe much to the excellent Building Com-

Spraying Vetoed by Shade Tree Board

Declared Impracticable by Chairman in Report to Council.

The advisability of spraying the Borough of Narberth at public expense to control the Japanese beetle was declared impracticable by the Borough Shade Tree Commission in a report presented to Council at its September meeting. The report, signed by Robert J. Edgar, chairman of the Shade Tree Commission, states that the beetles do not attack all trees, and most of the damage on private grounds is done to vines, shrubs, plants and garden flowers which it is impracticable to spray with a high pressure sprayer.

The report also considers the purchase of equipment and material by the Borough to spray with Borough labor impracticable. It recommends the spraying of trees on the community and school playgrounds which are susceptible to attack.

The complete report follows:

"It seems to us that it would be impracticable to spray all trees and shrubs on public grounds and privately owned grounds in the borough for the control of the Japanese beetle.

"The work of this pest is quite serious and we realize that if trees are defoliated successively for several years it will probably result in the ultimate death of the trees. It so happens there are only certain species of trees that are preferred by the beetle whereas other trees are not attacked. Among the susceptible trees are elms, horsechestnuts, cherries, sassafras, Lindens and some smaller trees which are not ordinarily found on public grounds or on streets. Our recommendations would be that the borough have sprayed the trees in the playground and the horsechestnut in front of the fire house until it is removed to the

City Line Golf Notes

Two hundred and two men and 107 women have qualified (with scores of 52 and 62, respectively) for the Tom Thumb tournament to be played Tuesday evening at the City Line Golf Club, Bryn Mawr Avenue, Bala. Prizes will be awarded the winners, who will be eligible to compete in city, State and national tournaments.

A tournament for women, scheduled for Tuesday night of this week, was postponed to Wednesday night because of rain; one for men is scheduled to be held this Friday night.

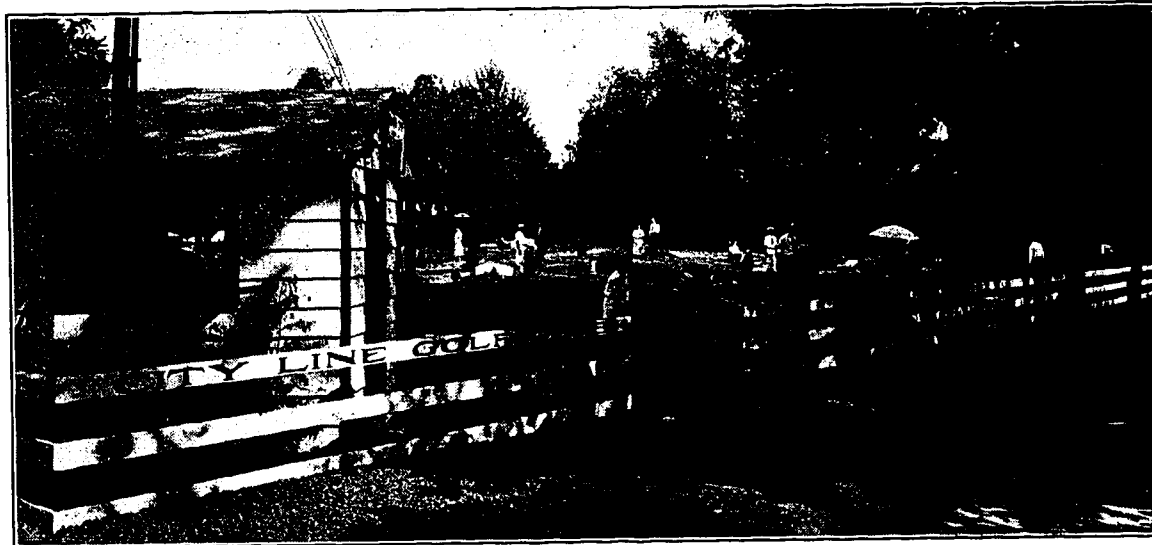

On Monday a new low score for the eighteen-hole course was made by Mrs. Ralph R. J. Dunkle, Jr., of the Bala Apartments. She went out in 20

Marriage Is Announced

Mrs. Harold J. Conners, formerly Miss Sheila M. Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. James Foster, of Brookhurst Avenue, Narberth, whose marriage on January 24 of this year to Mr. Harold Conners, of Ardmore, was recently announced.

Marriage Announcement
Reveals Office Romance

Mr. and Mrs. P. James Foster, of Brookhurst Avenue, Narberth, recently announced the marriage of their daughter, Sheila Mary, to Harold J. Conners, of Wellington Road, Ardmore, the marriage having been solemnized in Ardmore on January 24 of this year.

The newlyweds are now on their belated honeymoon touring the western part of the State and will return via Washington, D. C. They will be the guests at a reception to be held in their honor at the home of the bride's parents on September 23.

The news came as a surprise to many of their friends, but suspicion has prevailed among those with whom they have been closely associated.

Mr. Conners is employed in the Ardmore office of the Philadelphia Electric Company in the capacity of sundry sales accounting supervisor, while his bride for the past four and one-half years has been his stenographer. Both are Lower Merion High School graduates.

After their return the bride and groom will be at home in the Drexel Court Apartments, Drexel Hill.

Cynwyd Pastor Speaks to Rotary Club

Taking as his topic, "Things That Count," the Rev. Frank Duncombe, minister of the Cynwyd Methodist Episcopal Church, addressed the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday.

Age, he said, is not the criterion of a successful life. Methuselah was contrasted with famous youths. Money also is not among the things that count, for it cannot be taken to the next world. Pleasures and materialism also came under the censure of the speaker.

He took the cities of the ancient world as an example of the results of materialism, and of the need for service and generosity. "Greece, Rome, Pompeii are gone," he said. "Why? Because they didn't have a Rotary Club."

Service, good-will, friendship, comradeship were brought out as the things that count.

Bare Legs Permissible at Junior High,
Lower Merion Board of Education Rules

Girls in the Lower Merion Junior High School may now appear at school minus stockings, but their older sisters in the Senior High must be fully garbed, was the decision arrived at by the Lower Merion Board of Education at its meeting last Wednesday night.

A mother of a Junior High School girl, protesting at the meeting against the regulation requiring the girls to wear stockings, said: "My child has never worn stockings in her life and I feel it is an unnecessary restriction. She is only a little girl and to require her to put on stockings would make her feel self-conscious and change her mental attitude in an undesirable way." She was one of four parents who appeared at the meeting to protest against this ruling.

The sentiment of the Board favored the removal of the restriction in the case of the Junior High School, but agreed with Superintendent S. E. Downs that different circumstances in the Senior High School made it undesirable to do so there.

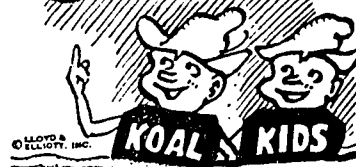

"It is not a question of modesty," said Mr. Downs in commenting on the matter, "but of its relation to the discipline and dignity of the school. We find that discipline and the general tone of the school is better when the girls wear stockings."

In his report to the Board Mr. Downs made the following statement on the matter:

"Several parents of High School pupils have raised a question as to the wisdom of retaining longer our restrictions as to the girls wearing stockings and the boys coats or blouses with belts while seated in classroom or auditorium. These restrictions were inaugurated and retained in the High Schools for the purpose of aiding in discipline and of preventing any undue familiarity under conditions of seating and grading necessary in a co-educational school. In gymnasium and on the athletic field the greatest possible freedom of dress has been granted, but this could not obviously be permitted everywhere. I believe that these restricting regulations still have value for our boys and girls and in keeping high the tone of the school, but they are not of vital importance

Parent-Teacher Group Directors Hold Meeting

The Executive Board of the Parent-Teacher Association of Narberth held a luncheon last Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. Clarence Woolmington, of Narbrook Park. This was followed by an informal meeting, which W. J. Drennan, principal of the Narberth School, attended. Among those present were Miss Florence Pray, Mrs. F. T. Van Auken, Mrs. C. C. Tyson, Mrs. Thomas V. Schock, Mrs. Joseph Perry, Mrs. Cayrl Starr, vice president of the organization; Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Mrs. Paul Loos, Mrs. M. H. Nordblum and Mrs. J. H. Patton.

Outing Next Saturday

The Men's Bible Class of the Presbyterian Church is making elaborate plans for the annual outing for the men of the church and their friends at Valley Forge, Saturday, September 27. The "hikers" will leave the church at two o'clock, traveling by automobile to the scene of the afternoon's activities. Of the various committees at work on the preparations for the big event those on sports and "eats" are the most active—and no doubt the most important. Good fellowship and good food will rule the day.

Dog Keeper Fined

Frederick Black, of 217 Lantwyn Lane, Narberth, was fined $5 and costs at a hearing last Friday night at Elm Hall before Burgess Henry A. Frye for allowing his dogs to run at large unmuzzled. The complaint was lodged by several of his neighbors, who said Mr. Black kept six dogs which were allowed to run wild at all hours of the night and morning to the great annoyance of the neighborhood. The decision of the Burgess was appealed by Mr. Black.

Congratulations!

Congratulations are in order for the Methodist Episcopal Church, whose new structure will be dedicated on Sunday. Representing as it does the fruit of years of labor on the part of the members and pastors, it not only will be an inspiration to those who worship within its walls but as a thing of beauty will be a joy forever to the community. Plans were laid for the new building during the pastorate of the Rev. W. Sheridan Dawson, and subscriptions for a considerable amount were received. Credit for pushing the project through to its most successful conclusion goes, however, to the present pastor, the Rev. Samuel MacAdams. A most welcome addition to the Borough's churches, it takes its place as one of the handsomest church structures on the Main Line.

Not that we would boast—

The exceedingly high representation of Main Line and Bala-Cynwyd residents in "Who's Who," one out of 400, and ten times the national representation, is an index of the prominence of the section. Without such people as these the Main Line would be just another residential section and not one of the famed living sections of the country.

Probably few other parts of the country can boast of as high a proportion of distinguished citizens as reside on the Main Line. Looking at the roll of residents included in "Who's Who" one comes on numerous names known the country over.

It should be kept in mind, however, that the names selected for inclusion in "Who's Who" are not necessarily the best people, but "the best known men and women in all lines of useful and reputable achievements."

Littering the Main Line

One of the great problems constantly facing the local authorities is that of littered streets. No street-cleaning plan can work if a new supply of trash is deposited as soon as the first is removed. No householder can keep his lawns neat if junk is deposited as fast as it is burned.

There are two sources of this litter. Careless people drop wrappings and papers as they pass, or toss them from autos. The greatest source is the handbill evil, which has risen to serious proportions in the one-time beautiful Main Line section.

The motorist returns to his parked car to find the windshield obscured by a circular and the seats covered with dodgers and blotters. Many of these are promptly kicked into the gutter. The householder, faced with a rapidly-increasing number of handbills, is feeding the incinerator almost hourly. Despite the fact that this type of advertising arouses only resentment, it persists and increases.

The chain stores, once the worst offenders, have discovered the uselessness of the nuisance, and most have reformed. A new evil has taken its place in the printing of free-distribution "newspapers" which fill the otherwise attractive streets and lawns. They blossom and die, but leave a trail of trash. One promoter leaves the scene and another rises in his place.

Scores of places less attractive and civic-minded than the Main Line have put a legal end to the nuisance. It is a matter for the commissioners, Councilmen and police to enact and enforce strict anti-dodger ordinances. The United States mails and legitimate newspapers can well carry the commercial news to homes. How long will the local authorities permit the Main Line to be a dumping ground for handbills?

Florida was fortunate for once in being missed by a hurricane. The loss in Santo Domingo was appalling, but everyone will be glad the Sunshine State escaped its ravages.

Seattle, Wash., has just passed an ordinance forbidding the use of "loud, profane or boisterous language" on miniature golf courses. The idea apparently is that peewee golfers should adjust their language to fit the course.

JESS---IN FUN

One of my favorite barber shops has recently installed a radio for the edification of its patrons. This is my idea of carrying coals to Newcastle, of carrying beers to Camden, of carrying bullets to Chicago. If ever there was an institution which should seek more silence rather than more noise, it is the modern American barber shop. What with women and children and barbers all collected together under one roof, conversation runs riot. Add to that the blare of a loud-speaker, and you have a rather comprehensive and convincing portrayal of what a real Hades would be. I'm going to purchase a soup-bowl and a pair of shears and cut my own from now on.

Suppose, for instance, that you have dropped into the barber shop along about a quarter to seven in the evening for a nice, quiet shave and haircut. After you have fully convinced the barber that your interest in his opinion concerning the weather, the Athletics and the Republican party is practically nonexistent, and you are beginning to enjoy a complete silence, suddenly Floyd Gibbons shouts down your ear that according to the latest dispatches from Peru thirteen soldiers have been killed and ten wounded and what is the United States going to do about it now? You moan miserably. Then the Yanks defeat the Athletics by a score of ten to one and Babe Ruth hit three homers in successive innings. And you are ready to go home to bed and call it one of the worst days you have had in a long time. Your only consolation may lie in the thought that things could be a little worse. Suppose, for example, Floyd Gibbons himself were the only barber in the world, and you have to have him shave you every day. How would you like that? I, personally, would grow a beard. And I would join the staff of the New York Times Book Review so that I could wear flowing hirsute adornment about my head, and never have to submit to the barber's shears.

Over in New York City the business depression has become so serious that even the crooks are complaining of unemployment. Some magistrates have found so little to do that in the last few months they have had to go out and commit their own crimes. Other magistrates are rushing off on unannounced vacations. Mayor Walker has so little to do that upon one recent occasion he appeared at a public function ON TIME. If he attempts to deny this, we have affidavits to prove it. District Attorney Tuttle has found the hours heavy upon him, and has commenced to spend his evenings investigating the bank accounts of magistrates and various other city employees. The net result of his investigation has been that the term "magistrate" has fallen into some degree of disrepute. To call a respectable New Yorker a magistrate is to provoke him to instant battle. Another appellation has been added to the great American list of "fighting words."

One of the greatest popular misconceptions is of the distance between Philadelphia and New York City. Most people set the mileage down as from ninety to one hundred miles. The exact mileage, by automobile, is just a shade below fifty-four miles; anyone desiring information as to the exact route to be used may have same upon request to me. No charge.

Another popular misconception is concerning the city of Pittsburgh, which, incidentally, is always spelled with the final "h." Pittsburgh is not the smoky city. It is cleaner than Cleveland, Buffalo, Youngstown, Trenton and a dozen other Eastern cities.

A popular misconception is that electrification of railroads necessarily improves the service thereon. Ask residents of Bala-Cynwyd about this one.

Another popular misconception is that these bantam automobiles are dangerous to their passengers. They are not. If a five-ton truck bears down upon one of the little fellows he can scoot under its front wheels. He can always avoid an accident by turning aside and scrambling along on the sidewalk. If some larger car does

BACKGAMMON

This modern craze for Backgammon is well founded. There's an exciting element of chance in it. There's more than a little skill needed. In fact, it's one of the best games for two ever invented. No wonder people are playing it everywhere... at home, in their clubs, even painting huge boards on the floors of their verandas! But before you do that, we suggest looking at our interesting assortment of boards, draughtsmen, dice and dice cups.

The Best Shows
Come to the EgyptianFor the Greatest Attendance in its History—The Egyptian
Theatre

Thanks You.

Yes, the past two weeks have brought to the "Show Shop of the Main Line" the largest crowds since the theatre opened. Perhaps consistently good shows, and courteous attendants, and splendid facilities for cinema and sound reproduction, caused this gratifying attendance; certainly much of it is due to the friendliness and faithfulness of you theatregoers, who have found that it is worth while to make The Egyptian your entertainment rendezvous. Again, we thank you!

Narberth Theatre Notes

The Narberth Theatre will show on Friday and Saturday Joan Crawford's new and greatest success, "Our Blushing Brides."

Lon Chaney, whose recent untimely passing bowed a nation's head in grief, is featured in the talking version of one of his earlier successes, "The Unholy Three," to be shown Monday and Tuesday. This picture has won the unstinted praise of the critics. Chaney, cast as a ventriloquist, conspires with two circus freaks in a most unusually planned theft. As an added attraction that very funny duo of laugh-makers, Laurel and Hardy, will be seen in one of their most recent mirthquake releases.

The European stage success, "The Swan," has found its way into the talkies under the new title, "One Romantic Night," with the beautiful and talented Lillian Gish assigned the leading role. Rod la Roque and Marie Dressler also have important parts in the story. The locale is set in a mythical kingdom, where the princess falls in love with her handsome but lowly fencing master. What this princess does when she is promised to a monarch of another nation in a diplomatic marriage forms the intensely interesting and rapid-moving plot. "One Romantic Night" will be the main attraction at the Narberth Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

This coming Saturday will inaugurate a new series of special children's matinees to be screened at the Narberth Theatre at 1 P. M. Care has been taken by the management in the selection of the material for these kiddie shows and only the very best productions that will appeal to the youngsters have been booked.

Suggestions from parents, teachers and others interested as shows of possible interest to the children, arrangement of programs, etc., will be gratefully received by the management.

Egyptian Theatre News

Refreshing and diverting is "Way Out West," William Haines' latest comedy, playing at the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, this Friday and Saturday. The tale of a circus barker who goes cowboy includes in its cast Leila Hyams, Polly Moran and "Ukelele Ike," with a new song hit, "Singing a Song to the Stars."

With wild whoopee shouts and three cheers for the red, white and boop-boop-a-doop, Helen Kane and her intrepid little band of sock-and-pow men will move into the Egyptian Theatre next Monday and Tuesday with their laugh-and-music show, "Dangerous Nan McGrew." The plot concerns a traveling medicine show, stranded in a snowbound hunting lodge in the Canadian Northwest, and there is a wild villain captured by the Mounted Police with the air of an McGrew after a series of funny events at an ice carnival in the snowy wilds.

Greta Garbo the great, in her second all-talking picture, "Romance," will appear at the Egyptian next Wednesday and Thursday. Aided by Lewis Stone, the Garbo portrays the role of an operatic prima donna whose frustrated romance took place in the New York of 1865. The cinema is adapted from the stage hit of the same name by Edward Sheldon, which ran in New York for six years from 1913, with Doris Keane in the starring role.

About "Holiday," the Egyptian's feature for next Friday and Saturday, one critic says: "Ann Harding, Pathe's dazzling blond from the stage, at last comes into her own in this excellent picture. They gave her a tremendous part, and she fills every inch of it. Perfectly cast. This is as fine a piece of high comedy, with tragic overtones, as the talking screen has yet held. Another justification for the mike—and another for the talented Harding." The picture, which is regarded as one of the year's best ten, is based on Philip Barry's highly successful stage drama of the same name.

Coming to the Egyptian soon are "The Big House" and "Admiral Byrd's Expedition to the South Pole." Lovers of the unusual are invited to watch for announcement of these two events.

Penn A. C. Tied in Last Twilight Game

McEntee Pitted Against McKee
As Errors Help Boro Cause.

USED COLLEGE STARS

Drayton Ebey's Penn A. C. Club on its sixth appearance at the Narberth Ball Field last Wednesday evening, September 10, found the going rather rough for five innings, the game ending with a 3-3 score. This was the last twilight game of the year.

Three years ago Narberth signed up with the Penn Athletic Club and during that time found these boys their real nemesis in baseball. On four occasions Pennac pounded out victories over Narberth while in a close contest the champions managed to eke out a 4-3 triumph over the Quaker City clan.

For this game Manager Ebey introduced a revamped line-up, far superior to the casts seen before in those five previous engagements, but errors were the leading factors that helped the Boroughites to register this even count. The Pennac cast, one of the most ardent brought to this field, comprised nine college players whose services were intended to give the champions their most decisive lacing on record and thereby close a most auspicious and productive season. Princeton, the University of Pennsylvania, Swarthmore and Pittsburgh University all shared the spotlight in the making of baseball players who Mr. Ebey believed would take the fight out of the Narberth lads. Last but not least of all, among this collegiate layout was represented Holy Cross in the person of Joe McEntee, who seemed to enjoy his chores on the hill as he fanned his own pals at the rate of one an inning. Joe McKee was pitted against McEntee and was seeking his sixth win of the season. McKee has two losses thus far.

The Philadelphians outlit the Davismen seven hits to four in this game and might have copped the fray had not the detrimental effects of errors helped the Boroughites along. Pennac quickly scored at the start and increased their lead in the third by tabbing a pair of markers, but Narberth offset their lead by responding with two runs in the home half of the first chukker.

Jauss, of the University of Pittsburgh, was tossed out by Rubincam in the opener, and Thomas made a commendable daring catch of Carter's deep drive. Carter is from Swarthmore. G. Delp, the pride of Penn State, started the trouble by successfully working McKee for a free ticket, and Welham, the boy from the University of Pennsylvania, splashed a single into the infield. Another Swarthmore boy, White, came to bat and shipped in Delp with a two-bagger to left field. Brother Delp, of Swarthmore, was retired unassisted by Gilfillan.

One down, White singled to port in the third and Curwin pulled in Delp's aerial. Jeffries, of Princeton, missed the last strike but gained first when Young missed the swift heave that fanned him, White going to third. On Matthews' rap, which Heckle muffed, two runs sped over the disc. Matthews, another Pennsylvania collegiate, was left on base when McEntee lofted to centre.

Narberth quickly hacked into the Pennac lead in the resident half of the third and evened the game. Gilfillan lifted a fly to centre. Humphries walked and Townsend doubled to port. Both runners advanced on Young's sacrifice to Matthews and, on a wild return to the plate, Humphries scored safely. White handled Thomas' bounder for the third putout.

SPRAYING VETOED

ground. We would also recommend that the school board have the trees on their property sprayed. As to the street trees which are under our care we do not know of any that are attacked by the Japanese beetle although we will watch these carefully and if there is any danger of their being injured during the season of 1931 we of course will expect to have them sprayed.

"As to the general practice of spraying for Japanese beetle it has been found that an early spray—approximately June 25—before the adult beetle flies, is advisable using oleate or coated arsenate of lead which, of course, is poisonous. This acts in two ways: First, as a repellent—beetles will not eat poisoned foliage. Second, as a stomach poison—beetles eating the poisoned leaves will be killed. This spray is sometimes not efficient through the entire season—up until mid August—as rain and wind storms will sometimes wash and whip the spray materials from the tops of large trees. It is advisable that a second spray be applied, mainly to the tops of such trees, two weeks later or possibly July 10. A great part of the problem in controlling the Japanese beetle lies with individual property owners who raise grapes, ampelopsis on house walls, climbing roses, bush roses, hollyhocks, altheas, pussy willow and other smaller plants found in gardens. Beetles are particularly fond of these and it is not practicable to have them sprayed by a local organization using a high-powered sprayer such as is used on large trees because of the fact that these plants are continuously breaking forth new buds, flowers and leaves throughout the growing season. Our advice would be that the owners have the plants sprayed themselves using a small hand sprayer or have them sprayed by the gardener who takes care of other work around the grounds.

"As to the use of beetle traps it has been found that the bait used attracts beetles from a considerable distance and that grubs are found in the ground the following season at places where such traps were used. While a considerable number of beetles are caught the percentage is comparatively small with the number of beetles which are attracted to the grounds.

"Treating open, sunny lawns with arsenate of lead and sand will destroy beetle grubs in the ground for a period of about three years and in addition will save the grass by preventing the beetles from eating the roots. All of this is along the line of the general control for Japanese beetle and we should like to see property owners in the borough co-operate with the borough authorities in fighting this pest. We shall be very glad to make suggestions and recommendations at the proper time next season to help in the fight. A very rough figure as to the cost of spraying all trees in the borough would be approximately $10,000. As to just how much it would cost to spray the trees that are liable to be attacked by beetles it would be very hard to estimate unless a detailed survey were made and even after this it is possible that the beetle might change its feeding habit and turn to other trees. It would seem impracticable to us for the borough to purchase equipment for spraying as it would cost approximately $3000 to buy apparatus including hose. This, of course, would not include material and labor for the actual spraying and it is to be hoped that within the next five or six years that the beetle will have passed out of this particular territory.

"We shall be glad to appear before the Borough Council at any of your meetings and go into this matter in further detail and we hope that the above will answer your questions."

G. O. P. Picnic to

Be Held Tomorrow

Several hundred people are expected at the annual picnic of the Lower Merion-Nørberth Republican Association which will take place at Wilson's Grove, Gladwynne, tomorrow afternoon. Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion treasurer, is the host.

A thousand ears of corn, together with baked ham, hot dogs, potato salad and coffee comprise the menu. A corn-eating contest is a scheduled feature of the picnic.

Many county officials in addition to county leader Charles Johnson and U. S. Congressman Henry Watson have been invited.

"Everyone is invited," said Mr. Hess.

Whistling Brings Birds to Ardmore Woman's Garden

Several bird baths, a small woodpile, and whistling ability were some of the means used by Mrs. Olis Pool Howard, of Ardmore, to attract birds to her garden. By her patience she has gotten them so tame that they answer her call.

Among other birds, two families of thrushes and a flicker family live in her yard, who are attracted by the small woodpile. Catbirds ("gray mockers") whistle back to her. A cardinal family, father, mother, and youngsters, whom Mrs. Howard feeds on peanuts from her bedroom window, flutter outside of her window angrily on days when she inadvertently forgets the peanuts.

There is a fascination in making birds like your garden well enough to stay that anyone with patience and no cats can enjoy. Few enough people in the suburbs, who have every opportunity to ride the hobby of knowing about birds, take advantage of it.

JESS IN FUN

manage to hit the little fellow he shoots off on an angle like a billiard ball, and has just as small a chance of overturning as it has. And, I ask you, did you ever see a billiard ball turned upside down? The chief objection to the bantam is the way that traffic cops treat him. If he parks beside a fireplug, the officer just picks him up and puts him away somewhere. And when the proud owner returns, he has a devil of a time finding his toy. It may be on the counter in some nearby store, or it may be resting on the desk at the adjoining police station. It may even have been placed in a cell for the night. This slight inconvenience is balanced by many conveniences. You can carry your reserve gasoline in an ordinary flask. You can keep spare tires in your pockets, done up in tinfoil much after the fashion of Life Savers (twice in successive weeks for this advertisement, Mr. Publisher. They ought to get the benefit of a lower rate.) Oil can be carried in an ordinary eye-dropper. Your flashlight battery will supply all the necessary electricity. Small-town wits used to think that "Put another nickel in it!" was a mighty fine remark to make to the operator of a stalled car. But now, as a matter of fact, putting another nickel in the bantam will assure it of five more miles of locomotion.

Due to the great success of the liberal trade-in offer which Sears made recently, we are pleased to repeat it. During the Anniversary any used tire, regardless of age, condition or make, will be accepted as part payment for a rugged new ALLSTATE. The size of the used tire determines the amount that will be allowed for it.

Since the day that Sears introduced them, the ALLSTATE tire prices have averaged one-fourth below comparable brands. ALLSTATE prices today are the lowest on record for comparable tires. This liberal trade-in offer makes them an even greater value—be sure to take advantage of the added saving.

Included in this latest window display, which is done in red, white and blue, are models of the Enterprise and Shamrock, day-by-day results of the races, and a glossary of yachting terms.

New Multi-Record Radio Is Ideal For Dancing

One reason for the increasing popularity of phonograph music—aside from the improved tonal quality provided by radio means of reproduction—is the constantly lessening amount of manual attention needed for playing the records. This greater ease of playing is particularly useful when the phonograph is used to accompany dancing. A couple can now put on a dozen dance records and dance for half an hour without needing to give any attention to record changing.

With the advent of the multiple-record changing radio-phonograph combination—or Multi-Record Radio as the Stromberg-Carlson Company calls its model of this type—the final step is made in eliminating effort from listening to phonograph music. When used for dancing, not only does this instrument practically eliminate need for manual effort, but all the musical range is reproduced, bringing out the low rhythmic tones which are essential for "getting the swing" of the dance.

In the model referred to, there are additional advantages. If desired an individual record may be repeated, or the records can be reassorted while the machine is operating without interfering with the playing. These two advantages add greatly to the convenience of the automatic record-changing feature, according to the Wunder Battery and Electric Shop, Narberth, who are Stromberg-Carlson representatives on the Main Line.

Individual Batting Records Are Bright Spot in Narberth's Depressing Season

By John Uberti

The 1930 season for the Narberth Baseball Club, on the eve of the twentieth championship series, has been one of depression for the Kings of the Main Line Diamonds.

The season, of course, is not yet over, with a five-game series at hand, the outcome of which may again bring to the Borough a championship that will prolong the customary traditions of this great ball club.

The season, in spite of its setbacks, has been one of the most active for the Narberth Club who to date engaged in fifty-three games, or ten more than in 1929. These figures do not include the championship series and a few more engagements that usually follow in the late season against other champions of their respective leagues. We recall with interest the fervid rally staged by the Davismen during the activities of the first-half when, after dropping three games in succession in the Main Line League, they accomplished a most commendable spurt to capture the next six contests for the title of the initial half with an average of .667. This compares with .778 of the 1929 season when the Borough club only suffered two defeats during the whole season.

Greater satisfaction for this disconsolate season is found in the returns of the accomplishments in independent baseball. While engaged in meeting independent clubs during this season, Narberth has vanquished twenty-two clubs out of the thirty-five that they have dealt with. Two have ended in even scores. This individual performance, the most praiseworthy of the year, gives the champions a percentage of .629, compared with .650 of the 1929 season, the most successful year in independent baseball.

Summing up the status of the Borough club, we find them winning thirty games, losing twenty-one and tying two for a mark of .577, the returns from achievements in independent ball offsetting the poor league statistics and thus enabling the pachyderms of the Main Line to remain above the .500 mark.

There is still the possibility, of course, of capturing the championship for the year by defeating Paoli and regaining some baseball prestige lost during the second half season.

In the fifty-three contests played prior to the commencement of the championship playoff, "Gene" Davis' sluggers have made a better showing than in years of yore. Looking at the 1930 season from a statistical standpoint, we find that in this dull year Narberth has on many occasions out-hit their conquerors; most of the defeats it has been revealed have been due to lack of co-operative measures among the Narberth batsmen when pals once reached base. On numerous instances there were left stranded on the lanes enough men to win a pair of games.

This fact is well corroborated by the batting returns of the Narberth players whose batting eyes have been keener this year than at any other time on record. Vernie Fleck, veteran of the club, is the leading batsman among the Borough players, having continually bettered his first-half figure of .455 to turn in a percentage of .465 for the whole season. Mickey Burns and Johnny Curvan were the main figures vying for second place throughout the year. Curvan took second with .439 during the first-half which compares with Mickey's .422, but as the race came to a finish Mickey Burns took advantage of Johnny's receding tendency and forged to the front, outbatting him .420 to .400. George Babb also ties Curvan with .400. This places five men in the .400 group which is three better than the 1929 season and incomparable with the 1928 year when none of the regulars could attain such a record. In 1928 Johnny Gillespie led the regulars with .379 while in 1929 it was necessary to carry the computations into extra figure before the batting champion could be discovered. That year Gillfillan batted .4253 against .4251 for Heckle. This season Heckle is batting .387.

Schedule for Week

Tomorrow—Paoli at Narberth.
September 21st: (Sunday),
Narberth at Paoli.

These records as exhibited by the Narberth club, individually and collectively, are for games played prior to the five-game championship series which will start next Saturday at Narberth followed by a second game on Sunday at Paoli. A championship series is often responsible for the alterations of many statistical computations in view of the importance of the situation as each player is striving desperately to offer the best of his services for his home club which often results in the drastic changes of averages. A final announcement of the averages for both the club and the players will follow the termination of the series.

Title Series in M. L. League Starts Tomorrow

Paoli and Narberth are the principals in the five game series starting tomorrow for the championship of the Main Line League, a title held by Narberth for thirteen years out of 19 of the league's existence. Saturday's game will be played on the Narberth field and Sunday's at Paoli.

The battery for the first contest for Narberth will be Charley Townsend and Mickey Burns, while Manager Madden of the Paoli Club is expected to start Bigg Hagey with Eachus as his backstop. Noblitt is expected to pitch on Sunday for Paoli.

Narberth won the first half title and Paoli the second half by defeating Bryn Mawr last Sunday.

The probable lineup:

Paoli	Narberth
Potter, 1b	Curvan, rf
Centrone, cf	Burns, c
Verna, 2b	Humphries, 3b
Thompkins, lf	Fleck, 1b
Umbach, rf	McEntee, 1b
Henry, ss	M. Heckle, cf
Eachus, c	W. Heckle, ss
Hagey, p	Harris, 2b
Belancin, 3b	Townsend, p

Narberth Withdraws

Following two successive unjustifiable decisions by a partisan civilian umpire, Manager Gene Davis called his Narberth team off the field in the second inning of a game at Burholme last Sunday. Players of the Burholme Club admitted the decisions were absurd and offered to get another umpire and start over but the proffer was not accepted.

Observe Anniversary

The thirty-fifth anniversary of the discovery of chiropractic was celebrated at the Ardmore Woman's Club last evening with an educational and musical program. Musical numbers were offered by Horace Brendle, Master Carl Stabnan, George Brennen, Jr., and Horace Brennen. Dr. Wray Hughes Hopkins and George Brennen were among the speakers of the evening.

Paoli Captures Second-Half Flag

Downs Bryn Mawr 4-1 Last Sunday, Averting Triple Tie-Up.

By John Uberti

Manager Charlie Madden's Paoli Club gained possession of the second-half championship of the Main Line League last Sunday at Paoli and the right to meet Narberth, champions of the first half, when they battered the nemesis of the league, Bryn Mawr, four runs to one.

If a club ever came through with victory at an opportune moment, it was Paoli, whose triumph over the Bryn Mawr collegiates barred the possibility of three teams going into a tie. The second-half race for the title this year has been one of the most crucial for the clubs and interesting for the fans of any seen for many years. Had Bryn Mawr been able to reverse the decision on Paoli on Sunday, Dunkirk would have gone into a tie with Paoli and Media, scheduled to meet Narberth last Saturday but which engagement was called on account of rain, was a favorite to maul the Davismen with Pitcher Krause at the helm. This outcome would have found three teams struggling for the title and each an even favorite to turn the trick.

"Smokey" Cobilis of Villanova College could not cope with the consistent flow of fireballs from the dextrous arm of Jimmy Noblitt and surrendered after a continual losing battle.

Girard, first man up in the Paoli half of the fourth, raised a fly to Morgan playing centre-field. Verna, the hitting second-basemen, clubbed a short single over right-field and moved on to the keystone on a perfect steal of the base and to third on a blunder, scoring from that corner on Umbach's sacrifice hit. Thompkins walked but Reid nestled beneath Potter's weak hoist over short.

The sixth found Paoli's lead more substantial when two runs trekked homeward. Girard also started this flareup by singling but was retired off first when Rogers intercepted a high drive by Verna and tug first for a twin killing of the pair. Cobilis unleashed an outside throw that struck Umbach. On Thompkins' long single Umbach went all the way around to third and both runners tallied off Potter's admission to first on Rogers' miscue of his line drive. Eachus hit to Cobilis and was out.

Bryn Mawr averted a shut-out in the seventh when with the bases loaded Rogers who had been struck by a wide heave scored off Cobilis' sacrifice to left wing. Paoli augmented their lead to four runs in the finale as Rachus walked, moved around to the torrid base and scored while Centrone who also ambled, was being played back and forth when he attempted to steal a base. Centrone was safe at the keystone when the return throw home failed to nab Eachus.

All Saints Opens

With an attendance of 107, the All Saints Church School, Wynnwood, opened for the season last Sunday, under charge of the Rev. E. J. Bubb, assistant to the rector. With a staff of twenty-five teachers, the school has plans for a progressive and well-attended year.

With the co-operation of the weather man, it is believed President Hoover nearly fulfilled a pre-election promise. He was going to dry up the country.

Fireproof mail pouches are being developed. Probably to hold those red-hot love letters sometimes read to juries.

Merion Man Leaves $30,000 Estate to Wife

The will of H. Perry Edmunds, late of Merion, disposing of an estate valued at $30,000, was admitted to probate at Norristown on Saturday. A one-third interest in the firm of Norcross and Edmunds is given a nephew, former State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth. The residuary estate is placed in trust for the testator's wife, Viola Stone Edmunds. At her death the income of the trust estate is to be paid to Margaret M. Edmunds. At the latter's death the principal is to be given to the children of this beneficiary. Attorney Fletcher W. Stites is named executor of the will, which was executed December 5, 1917.

Robins and Robins to Open New Store Monday

Monday has been set for the formal opening of the handsome new store of Robins and Robins, interior decorators, on Lancaster Avenue east of Church Road, Ardmore, which was completed last week.

The building, which is 100 by 40 feet, is finished on the interior with a pleasing simplicity. The two large show windows, with their leaded panes and modern lighting effects, have attracted much attention.

The firm of Robins and Robins, composed of Russell C. Robins and A. R. Robins, started business in the fall of 1927 at Twenty-first and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia. In order to better serve their suburban trade plans for the Main Line store at Ardmore were drawn up and upon its completion this week, the business has been moved to Ardmore.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public by Robins and Robins to inspect their new building. The architects are DeArmond, Ashmead and Bickley. B. G. and E. R. Levin are the owners of the property.

The new store will be open evenings throughout September.

Boy Scouts of America

"THE CABIN"

Elmwood and Essex Avenues
Narberth, Pa.

September 17, 1930.

To the Citizens of Narberth:

After a lapse of several years, we find it necessary again to ask the citizens of our Borough for financial assistance in connection with our Boy Scout work. Our funds are practically exhausted, and as the coming season's activities among the boys of our community are about to start, it will be necessary to have more money available in the treasury to carry through any kind of a program during the winter months.

Interest charges incident to "carrying" the property on which The Cabin is located must be paid, heat and light are required, and repairs are badly needed on the building.

A liberal contribution in the interest of the Boy Scout movement in Narberth will be appreciated.

THE FATHERS' ASSOCIATION.

WALTON M. WENTZ, President.

Enroll 442 Pupils at Narberth School

Eighty-five New Students Are Among Those Now
Registered.

GIVE BUS SCHEDULE

A total enrollment of 442 pupils at the Narberth Public School was reported this week by Principal W. James Drennen. Of this number 85 are new pupils. The registration by grades is as follows: Kindergarten, 36; first grade, 53; second grade, 50; third grade, 52; fourth grade, 55; fifth grade, 55; sixth grade, 66; seventh grade, 75.

The kindergarten enrollment has been closed since the number that can be accommodated has been reached.

The school authorities request the co-operation of parents in a drive to boost the school banking system. Thrift teachings, they feel, is one of the functions of the school. The goal set is 80 per cent. of all pupils enrolled depositing in the school bank.

All Narberth students going to Lower Merion Junior and Senior High Schools will be required to present a bus pass upon request of the bus driver after September 26. The passes will be distributed at the Narberth School office, Essex and Sabine Avenues, on Thursday and Friday, September 25 and 26, between the hours of 8:20 A. M. and 5 P. M.

The routes and schedules of busses for Narberth students to Lower Merion are as follows:

Route No. 1: Leave Chestnut and Wynnewood Avenues 7:50 A. M. Through Chestnut to Narberth Avenue to Montgomery Avenue, to school. Girls' Senior High.

funds. Likewise, a troop of Scout "cubs"—boys between the ages of nine and twelve—cannot be organized owing to the fact that the necessary facilities and equipment are not available.

That the boys of the community are a "wide-awake" group was clearly demonstrated last Summer during the two weeks seventeen of the Scouts were at Camp Delmont. In that time Narberth scouts captured every contest in which they were entered, both in games and in general scouting. When they left camp they had more merit badges and emblems than any other troop in camp. For some years the Narberth troop has held the championship of the Main Line in the First Aid contest.

"Our Town" will lend its assistance in furthering this work among the boys of the community by acknowledging through its columns the contributions received by the Fathers' Association each week up to the time of going to press.

mittee of their church for the magnificent way they conceived and carried through to completion every phase of the great enterprise. They feel, too, that the whole community is entitled to know the personnel of this committee in order that all may share in a sincere appreciation of their great accomplishment. The Building Committee is comprised of the following: William J. Bailey, chairman; Henry A. Frye, Charles L. Jenkins, Fletcher Stites, Floyd W. Woodcock, Frank C. Smith, Annie W. Ward, Ernest Puring, Jr., Theodore H. Koup, Rev. Samuel MacAdams.

This committee planned the entire building and employed an architect to visualize their ideas in blueprints and specifications. No sacrifice in time, money and energy has been spared to make their dreams come true. Every member contributed his best, for all had a mind to work. Of necessity, however, the chief burdens rested on the three whose names head the list, and too much praise cannot be given them.
